Andino International, Inc.
Notes to the Financial Statements
June 1, 2010

1. Organization and Purpose:

Andino International, Inc. (“Andino” or “Give An Education”) is a non-profit, non-denominational charitable organization bringing education to children living in extreme poverty. Our mission is to alleviate poverty by providing educational opportunities to children who are not being educated. We accomplish this mission by building primary schools in extremely impoverished urban communities. Significant differences can be seen in the expense structure of Andino due in part to large startup expenses recognized in the prior periods Statements.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

a. Accrual Basis Financial Statements

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis and conform to generally accepted accounting principles in accordance with the principles of not-for-profit accounting.

b. Net Assets

The net assets of Andino and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets include all resources which are not subject to donor/mission-imposed restrictions of a more specific nature than those which only obligate the organization to utilize funds in furtherance of its mission.

- Restricted net assets carry specific, restrictions on the expenditure or other use of contributed funds.

These typically restrict the funds from being allocated to non-direct project costs and organizational overhead. Temporary restrictions may expire either because certain actions are taken by the organization which fulfill the restrictions or because of the passage of time. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets. Due to banking fees all funds are held in one bank account and balances classifications are tracked externally.

c. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all unrestricted cash on hand and in banks. Andino also considers all highly liquid unrestricted investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

d. Contributions Receivable

It is the policy of Andino to record for the period contributions considered to be in transit at the close of the period, that is, those dated in December and received during January, as contributions receivable.

These typically relate to PayPal donations received and not yet allocated to checking accounts.

e. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets consist of equipment and are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided under the straight-line method based upon estimated useful asset lives of 10 years and 5% of original cost salvage values.

f. Contributions

Contributions are recorded as revenue upon receipt of cash or unconditional promises to give (pledges). Contributions are considered available for restricted use only unless specifically unrestricted by the donor. Contributions received are recorded as increases in unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. All contributions by board members are recorded as unrestricted.

g. Donated Services

Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by individuals with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the organization. These services are valued based on the estimated cost of services that would have otherwise had to have been purchased. Andino also receives a significant amount of donated services from unpaid volunteers who assist in various other program and supporting services. No amounts have been recognized in the statement of activities for these other unpaid volunteers because the criteria for recognition under generally accepted accounting principles have not been satisfied.

h. Allocation of Functional Expenses

Directly identifiable expenses are charged to expense groups on an aggregate basis. Miscellaneous expenses include those expenses that are not directly identifiable with any other specific function but provide for the overall support and direction of the organization.

i. Tax Exempt Status

Andino International, Inc. is exempt from tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and from state and local taxes under comparable laws.

j. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

k. Depreciation

Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated lives of various classes of property.

3. Contributions:

Andino International, Inc. is underwritten by donors who support the educational efforts, exhibitions, and administrative costs of the organization through unrestricted donations, as well as through sponsorships and in-kind gifts.

4. Gifts in Kind:
